

STORAGE & ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

STORAGE:

- Store at room temperature.
- Do not store in refrigerator.
- Do not store in places with moisture and heat.
- Store in a place that is away from kids and pets.

PRECAUTIONS:

- Make sure that the affected area(s) does not have any lotion, soap, sunscreen, make up, fragrance or anything similar on it. Why? This may contribute to swelling, rashes, blisters or any other reactions.
- If you develop any bothersome side effects as listed below, stop using the topical medication and talk to your doctor immediately. Why? You may be allergic to one or more of the ingredients in the topical medication.
- If someone helps you apply the topical medication, have the person wear gloves. Have the person wash their hands immediately after helping you.

POSSIBLE SIDE EFFECTS:

- Swelling
- Skin irritation
- Redness
- Itching

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- This topical medication has been made for the external skin only. If accidentally taken by mouth or any other route, contact your doctor immediately or call the National Poison Control at 1-800-222-1222 (Poison Helpline is available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week).
- Do not use the topical medication after the expiration date or if the color does not match the description on label, please contact us immediately.
- Do not shower, bathe or wash the affected area(s) where the topical medication was applied. Wait 1 hour before wetting the affected area(s).
- Do not apply the topical medication to any open cuts or other open parts of your skin.
- Do not cover the affected area(s) with any kind of bandage, tape, plastic wrap or anything similar unless advised by your doctor.
- To limit exposure to others in household; children, partner, and pets should avoid contact with unwashed or unclothed application sites.

This patient information was prepared as an educational service. If you receive instructions from your physician that differ from the information on this sheet, you should always follow your physician's instructions.